Subject: Compliance Deadline

Dear Sir,

We refer to your letter No. Gen-3203 dated July 19, 2019 received by us on July 22, 2019. In this respect we would like to submit that the status of case is much remain the same as we communicated to the Exchange vide our letter No. BPB/SD/2019/1095 dated June 14, 2019.

Further, the hearing of our pending case before the Honourable Supreme Court of Pakistan regarding unjust demand of vend and permit fee and excise duty was taken place on May 8, 2019 in which the following order was passed: (copy of order is enclosed)

Quote "Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the Provincial Government is ready to surrender the Indemnity Bonds but not return the amount of vend fee and permit fee already deposited by the respondents with it as condition for not pressing the present appeals. Learned counsel for the respondents submits that that option is not accepted. Consequently this matter is to go into rehearing. Some of the respondents are un-served, others who had been proceeded against ex-parte were directed in previous order to be issued fresh notices. The appellant-department shall provide the latest addresses of service of such respondents, if the same are available, to their learned counsel for submission in the office; otherwise, the appellant shall deposit expenses for proclamation in respect of the said respondents to be made in the Daily Jung, Karachi for a date to be fixed by the office. Relist after the month of Ramazan, 2019" Unquote

In the above Order the Learned Counsel for the Appellant submitted that the Provincial Government is ready to withdraw the appeals and surrender the Indemnity Bonds/Guarantee(s) but will not refund any amount paid to the government on account of vend fee, permit fee and excise duty in this regard.

The Board of Directors in their meeting held on June 14, 2019 considered the above proposal and accorded its approval for unconditional acceptance of the proposal made by the learned counsel on behalf of the Government of Sindh. Later the case was adjourned to date in office and we expect that the same would be taken up for hearing in the first week of August after the court vacations.

We assure you that we will keep you informed about the outcome of the case.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully

Ali Niaz Akhtar
