Re: Material Information.

Dear Sirs,

This is to inform that on March 19, 2014, during checking of KSE new reporting system "PUCAR" "Material Information" which was communicated on March 04, 2014 was loaded inadvertently. On the advice of KSE that "PUCAR" is now live and this has already been communicated to shareholders on March 04, 2014, we revoked communication on March 19, 2014 through "PUCAR" on the same date i.e. March 19, 2014, but this was loaded inadvertently to the Karachi Stock Exchange web site which causes confusion between the shareholders.

This is to inform you further that Material Information communicated to KSE on March 04, 2014 is valid information and already available on KSE web site and there is no revocation.

Yours faithfully

For Pakistan Oilfields Limited
