Financial Overview

The financial performance of the Company is summarized as follows:

	Half Year Ended		Quarter Ended
	31-Dec-2018	31-Dec-2017	31-Dec-2018	31-Dec-2017
	Rupees in Million		Rupees in Million

Net (loss)/ profit	(58)	4.0	(23)	(20)

By the Grace of Almighty Allah, your company is returning towards its double-digit growth trajectory and has achieved all time highest sales resulting from the capacity enhancement during the last years. Your company has registered net sales during the half year at Rs. 2.74 billion, as compared to Rs. 2.00 billion in the same period last year, showing an increase of Rs. 742 million, which is 37% more than comparable period. Total tonnage dispatched in current six month is 21,351 ton against 16,454 ton, resulting in volumetric growth of 30% (4,897 Ton).

During the quarter under review your company has recorded revenue of Rs. 1.45b as against 0.92b in comparable period last year resulting an increase of 58% (0.53b). Total tonnage dispatched in current quarter is 10,581 Ton against 7,158 ton, resulting in volumetric growth of 48% (3,423 Ton).

Resultantly your company has registered during 6 months gross profit of Rs. 170 million as compare to 148 million showing an increase of 22 million which is 14% more than compare able period. The quarter under review shows increase in gross profit by 15 million which is 21.7% more than comparable period last year.

Financial cost for the half year under review has been increased by 39% as compared to last period mainly due to rise in policy rate by State Bank of Pakistan. The company operations shows significant increase of 48% for the quarter under review, however short-term borrowing in comparison only increased by 2.5%, which shows that company has taken positive measure to manage its working capital requirements.

Further, due to devaluation of Pak Rupee your company has suffered loss of Rs. 46.70 million during six months as compare to 42.7 million in comparable period last year.

The major reason of loss is shrinking of margins due to lag of passing increased prices of raw material, fuel prices, utility cost, increased in finance cost and foreign exchange loss due to high volatility of Pak Rupee.

Future Outlook

New Government is taking positive steps to cope up with microeconomic challenges. In order to control current account deficit measure like restriction on imports will trigger growth in local industries which is ultimately beneficial for the country. The demand for local products will grow which ultimately raised the demand for the packaging products in upcoming quarters. The increase in demand is evident from the handsome 48% volumetric growth discussed above. However, increasing trend in fuel prices, utility cost, policy rates and volatility in exchange rates will remain challenges for the economy.

Your company is trying hard to face these challenges. Since, this is unprecedented that all the cost factors are constantly increasing, there is no stability in it and situation of uncertainty persist, due to these challenges, the company is conscious in its approach and mainly focused to broaden its customer based and reach its capacity level.

Management of your company is very optimistic about future of the packaging industry in Pakistan. Being fully aware of the situation, the management is focusing on deploying most feasible sales mix and taking all possible measures to increase sales by maximizing capacity utilization. Management is continually reviewing the business strategy to cope with the challenges and has been incessantly endeavouring not only to tap alternative inexpensive sources of raw material but also focusing on rationalization of other costs as well as passing its cost to customers.

Your company is not only meeting demands of large national and multinational companies but also strengthening its long-term association with them, by providing value added products and broaden its product range along with constant addition of new potential clients.

Furthermore, your company knows the importance of online sales which is the successful sales phenomena of this era and realised the demand from small and medium size business will rapidly grow. As part of its strategy to explore new avenues and use modern technology to increased its sales volumes. Your company have started online sales to meet demands of small and medium size customers. Your company is pioneer who has started first B to B online packaging sale in Pakistan. The company is optimistic that these unconventional channels will further boost the sales of your company and contribute in its bottom line.

These unconsolidated condensed interim financial statements are presented in Pakistan Rupees which is also the Company's functional currency.

3 Use of judgments and estimates

The preparation of the unconsolidated condensed interim financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates. In preparing the unconsolidated condensed interim financial statements, the significant judgments made by the management in applying accounting policies and the key sources of estimates were the same as those applied to the annual unconsolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended 30 June 2018.

4 Significant accounting policies

The accounting policies and the methods of computation adopted in the preparation of these unconsolidated condensed interim financial statements are same as those applied in the preparation of the annual audited unconsolidated financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2018 except for the following:

4.1 Change in significant accounting policy

During the period, the Company has adopted IFRS 15 'Revenue from Contracts with Customers'. The details of new significant accounting policies adopted and the nature and effect of the changes from previous accounting policies are set out below:

The Company manufactures and contracts with customers for the sale of goods which generally includes single performance obligation. Management has concluded that revenue from sale of goods be recognized at the point in time when control of the asset is transferred to the customer, which is when the goods are delivered to the customer. However, the adoption of IFRS 15 which has replaced IAS 18 Revenue, IAS 11 Construction Contracts and related interpretations, did not have a material impact on the amounts of revenue recognized in these unconsolidated condensed interim financial statements.

14 Fair value of financial instruments

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Underlying the definition of fair value is the presumption that the company is a going concern and there is no intention or requirement to curtail materially the scale of its operations or to undertake a transaction on adverse terms.

A financial instrument is regarded as quoted in an active market if quoted prices are readily and regularly available from an exchange, dealer, broker, industry group, pricing service, or regulatory agency, and those prices represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis.

IFRS 13 'Fair Value Measurement' requires the company to classify fair value measurements and fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements of fair value hierarchy into the following levels:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1)
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability (i.e. derived from prices) (Level 2)
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (i.e. unadjusted) inputs (Level 3)

Transfer between levels of the fair value hierarchy are recognized at the end of the reporting period during which the changes have occurred.

The following table shows the carrying amounts and fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities, including their levels in the fair value hierarchy. It does not include fair value information for financial assets and financial liabilities not measured at fair value if the carrying amount is a reasonable approximation of fair value.

14 Fair value of financial instruments

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Underlying the definition of fair value is the presumption that the company is a going concern and there is no intention or requirement to curtail materially the scale of its operations or to undertake a transaction on adverse terms.

A financial instrument is regarded as quoted in an active market if quoted prices are readily and regularly available from an exchange dealer, broker, industry group, pricing service, or regulatory agency, and these prices represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis.

IFRS 13 'Fair Value Measurement' requires the company to classify fair value measurements and fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements of fair value hierarchy into the following levels:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1)
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset either directly (i.e. derived from prices) (Level 2)
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (i.e. unadjusted) inputs (Level 3)

Transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy are recognized at the end of the reporting period during which the changes have occurred.

The following table shows the carrying amounts and fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities, including their levels in the fair value hierarchy. It does not include fair value information for financial assets and financial liabilities not measured at fair value if the carrying amount is a reasonable approximation of fair value.
