STATEMENT UNDER SECTION 160(1) (b) OF THE COMPANIES ORDINANCE, 1984

The management of the Company has considered various options for consolidating its activities and thereby effecting economies for the benefit of the company and ultimately for the shareholders. It has therefore been decided that the Shaheen Cotton Mills Limited be merged into Shahzad Textile Mills Limited.

The merger of both the companies will rationalize business structure, bring economies and significantly improve the flexibility, efficiency and financial strength. The proposed merger will reduce the expenses, curtail the reporting requirements, save tax and will enhance the profitability of the company and as a consequence benefit the shareholders.

Shahzad Textile Mills Limited is a public limited company quoted on Karachi and Lahore Stock Exchanges. Its authorized share capital is Rupees 100,000,000 divided into 10,000,000 ordinary shares of Rs.10/- each and its paid capital is Rupees 135,535,500 divided into 13,553,550 ordinary shares of Rupees 10/- each.

The Directors of the Company may be deemed to be interested to the extent of their shareholding or by the companies in which they are Directors.
