RECORDER REPORT

LAHORE: Lahore Bar Association (LBA) has rejected formation of a three member committee by Supreme Court to deal with the police personnel for torturing the lawyers in Lahore and has termed it a tactic to prolong the issue.

Although all other speakers pose confidence in the chief justice in this regard but President LBA Sajid Bashir while delivering speech in the general house of the bar said they reject the formation of the committee.

He said since last three months they were waiting for decision of the committee made by the chief justice of the Lahore High Court to resolve the issue of transfer of the Lahore district and sessions judge but in vain. He said formation of these committees is a delaying tactic and they did not believe in it. He demanded registration of FIRs against the responsible police officials and their immediate arrests for torturing the lawyers.

He asked the chief justice of Pakistan that he should not test their patience otherwise the LBA rally could also reach Islamabad. He put a resolution before the general house, which also rejected formation of the committee.

Later, the lawyers held protest rally and a protest demonstration on the Mall and The Lower Mall without facing any resistance from the police.

After holding general house meeting, in the leadership of Mian Abdul Qudoos, LHCA president, they took out the protest rally on the Mall and marched towards Aiwan-e-Adal courts to join the LBA general house meeting to show solidarity with them.

The protesting lawyers were not hindered by the police and instead were given easy access to their destination by blocking traffic on their rallying route. Chanting full throat slogans against police and Lahore High Court chief justice, they were demanding of Chief Justice Pakistan to
