NOTICE FOR ALL MEMBERS

In continuation to KSE notice No. KSE/N-3966 dated June 14, 2006, the KSE IT intends to test the reliability of the revised regulatory requirement to bypass the verification of availability of CFS facility against purchases in the ready market only as stated in the last paragraph of the aforementioned notice:

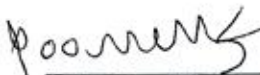

"It has also been decided to extend CFS facility for securities held by the potential financee for his previous purchases instead of the current requirement of getting CFS facility against purchases in ready market only."

In view thereof, a mock session on Monday June 19, 2006 has been scheduled as per following timings:

Market States	Timing
Regular/Future/IPO Market Pre-Open	05:00 P.M
