

private sector: Rajwana

M RAFIQUE GORAYA

LAHORE: Governor Punjab Malik Muhammad Rafique Rajwana has said that government is aware of the problems of the business community which would be resolved soon. He said the vibrant private sector of Pakistan is engine of the growth which will be given all the facilities as its importance cannot be undermined.

Governor Rajwana was talking to a 36 member FPCCI delegation led by its President Muhammad Idress, Chairman UBG Iftikhar Ali Malik, Senator Ilyas Bilour, FPCCI presidential candidate Abdul Rauf Alam, SM Naseer, Malik Sohail and others.

The governor said the government has achieved a lot during last two years. Pakistan has embarked on the path of high growth economy and was heading towards a bright future, he said. He said the government has achieved almost all of the objectives while successfully meeting the challenge of extremism, terrorism and the chronic energy shortages.

The Governor said the difficult decisions on vital national matters were now being taken with consensus, adding that huge investment was pouring in the energy sector and several new projects were in the pipeline.

He mentioned the projects in solar, hydel, coal and nuclear, besides the three new power generation plants that would be run with LNG. Tarbela is being upgraded, work on Dasu dam is in full swing and said country's energy sector was growing robust with each passing day. He said the projects would enable the country to meet its energy needs for the next decade and expressed his optimism that loadshedding would end soon.

He promised to forward the concerns of business community over money laundering bill. We cannot compete with rivals unless we provide opportunities to our business community.

Earlier, the representatives of business community informed the governor about their problems and sought his help to resolve issues. The meeting was also attended by representatives of dozens of chambers and trade associations from all across the country.

The JJ chief strongly condemned President Mamoon Masain's suggestion to the Jema to create a room for interest on home financing. He said such a frivolous proposal could not be expected from an aged man like the president. He said that next time, some other ruler could seek similar concession for drinking, and debauchery.

Addressing the gathering, JJ Punjab chief Mian Maqsood Ahmed expressed the hope that Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif and Army Chief Gen. Pervez Sharif would end their silence over the oppression going on in Bangladesh. He said that Hasina Wajid was fighting India's war and said that Islamabad should fight the war of Pakistan and foil the conspiracies against this country.

He said that in 1971, the Pakistan armed forces and the people of Pakistan were struggling to save the country and if it was a crime, the President and the Prime Minister of Pakistan at that time, were also committing crime, and a case against them could also be moved in some court any time. Deputy Secretary General JIP Farid Ahmed Piracha, also addressed the rally.
