1. CCM Multiple Sub Accounts Tagging Screen (will be using by CCM)

A new functionality will be available to CCMs called “Multiple Sub-Account Tagging.” This functionality determines which sub-account will be used for settlement purposes when multiple sub-accounts exist against a single UIN.

- This functionality will be available on the trade date before the auto-affirmation of initiated transactions.
- This is a one-time activity; once a record is posted, the same will be used for daily auto-affirmation. However, CCMs can update the posted records as per DTS.
- In case multiple sub-accounts exist but are not tagged by the CCM before auto-affirmation on the trade date, trades will be tagged to the latest available sub-account.

ALL	CM ID	PARTICIPANT ID	UIN	CDC SUB ACCOUNT
<input type="checkbox"/>	C0001	48579	CSHL212313HK	---
<input type="checkbox"/>	C0001	48579	HBAGZ113991UK	---
<input type="checkbox"/>	C0001	48579	IBDAGENT01	---

2. Auto Affirmation of IDSC initiated transactions on T+0 (by NCC Admin):

Currently, BCMs/PCM initiates IDS transactions on T+0 and CCMs are allowed to affirm IDSC transaction till T+1. From the Go-Live date, there will be no change in the initiation of transactions; however, CCMs will be required to affirm or reject the initiated transactions on T+0.

- All transactions rejected manually by CCMs on T+0 will be settled in the Main Account of the initiating BCM/PCM, as per existing mechanism.
- All transactions affirmed by CCMs on T+0 will be settled by the affirming CCM, as per existing practice.
- Transactions affirmed/rejected by CCMs on T+0 will not be available for rejection on the settlement date (T+1).
- If a CCM does not affirm or reject within the DTS, all remaining initiated transactions will be auto-affirmed by NCCPL, and the BO and money obligations will be generated on the CCM’s account.
- Auto-affirmed transactions on T+0 will remain available for rejection by CCMs on the settlement date (T+1).
- In case where no sub-account exists for initiated transactions at the CCM’s end, such transactions will be deemed rejected by CoB on T+0, and the settlement obligation will be generated on the initiating BCM/PCM.

3. Reject Auto Affirmed IDSC Transactions (will be using by CCM)

This functionality will be used for the rejection of auto-affirmed transactions and will be available to CCMs on the settlement date (T+1).

- All transactions (buy/sell) that were auto-affirmed by NCCPL on the trade date will be available in this screen for rejection.
- If a CCM does not perform any activity on this screen, then all transactions will be deemed affirmed, and the settlement obligation will remain with the CCM.
- All rejected transactions will be reverted back to the initiating BCM/PCM.

- After rejection, another functionality named “User Cancel” will be available to CCMs in the same screen.
- CCMs will have the option on the same screen to roll back the rejected transaction before any activity is performed by the initiating BCM/PCM.
- If the BCM/PCM has already taken up the rejected transaction for re-initiation, then such transactions will not be available for CCMs to roll back.
