THE BROKERS & AGENTS REGISTRATION RULES, 2001

This is with reference to the renewal of Registration of Brokers under the Brokers & Agents Registration Rules, 2001 with SECP, expiring on October 31, 2009.

In accordance with the directives received from SECP, it is required to submit the applications for renewal of registration with the SECP at least 45 days before the date of expiry. Accordingly the members were requested to submit their applications to the Exchange at least 60 days before the date of expiry, so that the same after due scrutiny by the KSE is forwarded to SECP within the specified time.

However, the Exchange received several representations from the Members' requesting extension in time for submission of Net Capital Balance Certificate. The matter was taken up with the SECP with the request to allow the Members concerned an extension in time for submission of the Net Capital Balance Certificate with the Exchange by September 30, 2009 so that the same is forwarded to SECP in the first week of October, 2009.

The SECP vide its letter No. 2(33) SMD/SE/2002 dated September 1, 2009 has been pleased to accede to the request of the Exchange and has allowed extension in time for submission of Net Capital Balance Certificate as desired by the Exchange.

In view of above, the members of the Exchange whose registration as broker with the SECP expiring on October 31, 2009 and who have still not submitted the relevant documents/information, are requested to submit the same immediately, except the Net Capital Balance Certificate. The Net Capital Balance Certificate as on June 30, 2009 shall be submitted to the Exchange on or before September 30, 2009, in duplicate so that the same will be forwarded to SECP accordingly.
