RE-COMPOSITION OF KSE-100 INDEX BASED ON FREE-FLOAT METHODOLOGY

On the recommendations of Index Expert Committee, the Governing Board of Directors of the Exchange in its meeting held on April 24, 2012 decided to implement the KSE-100 Index on the basis of free-float market capitalization method.

It was also decided that the Rules for composition and re-composition of the Index based on free-float methodology shall remain un-changed other than selection of companies on the basis of free-float market capitalization as against total market capitalization. The decision was also notified vide Notice No. KSE/N-2968 dated June 15, 2012.

In line with the above, the exercise of re-composition of companies in the KSE-100 Index on the basis of free-float market capitalization has been carried out as per the closing prices of shares as on August 31, 2012.

As a result, 32 companies have been included in the index on the basis of Sector Rule i.e largest free-float market capitalization companies of the Sector while the remaining 68 companies have been selected on the basis of Capitalization Rule i.e largest free-float market capitalization companies in descending order.

In aggregate 16 companies would be affected due to the said migration of KSE-100 Index from total market capitalization to free-float market capitalization as under:
