

PRESS RELEASE

Dated: January 28, 2008

As notified earlier, the Karachi Stock Exchange in collaboration with Institute of Securities Management and Research is organizing a training course in order to improve the knowledge base of market participants, investors, traders and employees of the KSE.

Keeping in view the overwhelming response from the investing public, the management of the Exchange has decided to organize further training courses to accommodate more participants. Accordingly, the 2nd training session will commence from February 26, 2008 while schedule for 3rd session will be from March 18, 2008 at the same venue i.e. Karachi Stock Exchange Auditorium.

All the interested participants are advised to contact the Public Relations Department of the Exchange for further information and registration.
