PRESS RELEASE

KSE FLOOD DONATION

(Karachi, August 28, 2010): The Karachi Stock Exchange Management and staff has contributed one day's salary and additional donations towards the on-going relief efforts related to the devastation caused by the recent floods in the country.

The donation cheques are being handed over to Omar Asghar Khan Development Foundation, Watan Foundation and Pakistan Poverty Alleviation Fund. All three organizations are actively working towards providing food camps, clean drinking water, free medical camps and planning for rebuilding shelter for rehabilitation of displaced people.

The Karachi Stock Exchange stands with the people of Pakistan to ensure that we emerge stronger and better from the current crisis.
